

WHAT HAPPENS TO MY ESTATE IF I DIE WITHOUT A WILL?

If you are married (when you die)

Do you have any children? #

Half to your spouse and half shared equally between children or grandchildren

Do you have any parents?

Half to your spouse and half to your parents equally

Your spouse takes the whole estate

if the beneficiaries have passed away, their children, if any, will inherit their parent's share of your estate. Except cousins

If you are not married (single, widowed or divorced)

Do you have any children? #

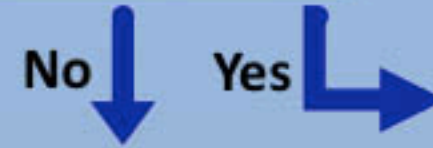

Shared equally between children (grandchildren or great-grandchildren)

Do you have any parents?

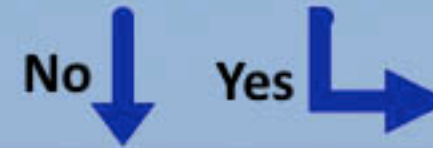

Parents take the whole estate equally

Do you have siblings? #

Shared equally between siblings or their children

Do you have grandparents?

Shared equally between them

Do you have uncles or aunts?

Shared equally between them

Your estate goes to the government